Falfurrias Announces Strategic Partnership With GlynnDevins

Investment Is Private Equity Firm's First In Marketing Services, Senior Living Segments

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (June 24, 2015) — Falfurrias Capital Partners, a Charlotte-based private equity firm focused on investing in growth-oriented middle-market companies, today announced it has made an investment in GlynnDevins, a leading provider of marketing services to senior living and care communities across the U.S.

Founded in Overland Park, Kansas, in 1987, the advertising and marketing agency specializes in providing strategic planning for occupancy solutions and metric-based marketing to 160 communities in 38 states. GlynnDevins represents the first investment in the marketing services and senior living categories by Falfurrias Capital Partners, founded by former Bank of America Chairman and CEO Hugh McColl Jr. and former Bank of America CFO Marc D. Oken.

“Our partnership with GlynnDevins will allow a market leader with an excellent management group to leverage the deep experience and operating expertise of the Falfurrias team and particularly Partner Todd Taylor, who has successfully grown marketing services companies prior to joining Falfurrias,” said Oken. “Falfurrias is excited about GlynnDevins’ prospects given its strong market position and macro trends related to the growth of America’s senior population over the next two decades.”

“Our agency has seen tremendous growth in the senior living and healthcare category and this partnership will enable us to broaden our capabilities and expand into new market segments,” said Jim Glynn, GlynnDevins co-founder and principal. “We’re excited about the next chapter in our agency history and look forward to our partnership with Falfurrias Capital Partners.”

Glynn and company co-founder George Devins will retain significant ownership positions in the company.

About GlynnDevins
